

To Whom It May Concern:

Peter Hurrell
Excel Business Broking Services

We would highly recommend to any business owner who is contemplating selling there business the services of Excel Business brokers .

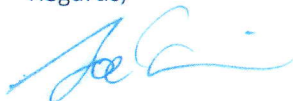

Peter and his team told us they could sell the business within a twelve week period and not only did they deliver, they negotiated a price above market value.

Peter was able to almost immediately line up qualified buyers and within two weeks and after two very short meetings we had started a negotiation process which Peter managed extremely well and limited our time on the deal.

Ultimately this led to a stress free sale and a short settlement was thus arranged.

Peter was available to talk night day and weekends and kept us informed at all the stages of the negotiation. His professionalism was outstanding through the whole process.
